

The diocese unveiled its newly designed Web site this month to make it faster and easier for you to get the information you need about the Catholic faith in Arkansas.

Visit the Web site today: www.dolr.org

NEW AND RETURNING FEATURES INCLUDE:

- Rotating photos on every page
- More than 1,000 total pages
- 243 Spanish and bilingual pages
- Home page offers nearly 100 links to inside pages and other Catholic sites such as the USCCB, Vatican and more ...
- Every page has been widened to make it easier to get to the content
- Every parish and school has its own page
- Mass, confession and adoration times for all parishes
- Submit your prayer needs on the Prayer Book of Intentions Online
- About the Catholic Faith section offers links to Church teachings as well as pages on how to become Catholic and how to return if you have fallen away
- Programs for diocesan offices are detailed with registration forms to attend events
- Several pages on Bishop Anthony B. Taylor including links to his Facebook page, homilies and pastoral letter on the human rights of immigrants
- Job openings for the diocese, parishes and schools
- Clergy, deacon, seminarian and diocesan staff directories
- Seminarian vocation stories told in their own words
- Pages for Catholic ministries including hospitals, social service agencies, retreat and retirement centers, Catholic organizations and more
- Pages for all convents and monasteries in Arkansas with links to information about their ministries and vocational opportunities
- Getting Married Guide for engaged couples plus programs for marriage and family, seniors and singles
- Information about Catholic social teaching and ways you can serve those in need
- What's New section includes a new column series from Little Rock Scripture Study and an H1N1 Swine Flu resource page
- Special Features includes links to resources on the Year for Priests and what the U.S. bishops have to say about health care reform
- Calendar lists events statewide
- Links to top stories from Arkansas Catholic
- History and statistics on the diocese
- Home page details current events occurring in the diocese, country and world with links to learn more
- A different diocesan program is featured in each Ministry Spotlight; this month: Catholic Youth Office
- Submit your archive or sacramental record request online without making a phone call
- And so, so much more ...

log on to www.dolr.org today!